

HPU is built in a framework/ cabinet of stainless material covered with panels on all sides that can easily be removed for service. Panels have a removable safety wire to ensure no dropped object during lifting. On top of this frame there are mounted a slanted panel where all instruments are mounted. Panel with gas dampers. The frame is has access for forklift / pallet truck.

There framework are according to Maskindirektivet 522 and Norsok R002 and has lifting slings according to DNV 2.7.1.

Unit has an internal tank of about 200 litres, with easy access to the filling / cleaning. With level gauges covering entire tank, drain valve etc.

The unit comes acc. to ATEX EX Zone 1 and acc. Norsok Z -015.