

Maximum Pressure: 7,500 PSIG. This performance curve was generated with empirical data, supersedes calculated or theoretical table data, and should be used to select an appropriate model. This model features a modular head design that allows interchangeability with other plunger sizes with the appropriate parts.